

INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION

Carmel Convent School celebrated the 77th anniversary, a noteworthy occasion on Independence Day, with pomp and fanfare, as it does every year. The stage was decorated for the cultural performances with flowers, festoons, balloons, and tricolour flags. A brief exhibition of independence warriors telling the tale of their sacrifices and sufferings was exhibited on the notice board together with images, slogans, and other information. The event's goal was to instil patriotism and nationalism among students by fostering a sense of responsibility and unity. As the chief guest, Mr. Guru Dutt Sharma, a well-known politician, social worker, and former block samiti chairman, was invited. He was escorted by the march pass team along with the management and the Head boy and the Head Girl to his honoured position and was offered a bouquet, a sense of regard .

Teachers and students in Std. VII made all the arrangements. The event started with prayers at 8 o'clock. In the presence of a gleeful gathering of students and teachers, the school administration showed its courtesy and invited the chief guest to hoist the flag together and the entire campus resonated with song of the national anthem just demonstrating the emotions of pride and patriotism.

Later , the seventh-grade pupils sang inspirational patriotic songs followed by patriotic dancing and poetry readings. The Science Teacher, Sr principal, and the special guest all gave speeches that awakened everyone's feelings towards the Mother Land with pride and patriotism. Two inspirational songs by the school choir group completed the program. At the end Sweets were presented to the students and all staff members.
